The Ministry of the Assembly

“Preparing for Liturgy” by Austin Fleming

*Yours is a share in the work of the Spirit of all that is holy,
for in who you are and in what you do is found the most powerful experience of the sacred.
In the living words, gestures, sacrifice and meal
of your common prayer and life the living God is disclosed as the faithful and redeeming Lord
whose tent is pitched among us.
Yours is to be nothing more and nothing less than the body of Christ.
Through your lives and in your midst
the tidings of salvation are faithfully proclaimed.
Yours is the work of telling and handing on the story of God’s mercy.
You are the people who embody the promise of life
forever.
For the world you are evidence that the word of judgment is tempered with compassion.
Yours is the ministry of celebrating again and again
the Passover meal of the new Covenant.
Yours is the work of gathering at the table
that welcomes all who turn their hearts back to God.
Yours is the proclamation of the mystery of faith.
Come to your ministry from your personal prayer:
It is the home from which you journey
to the house of God’s people,
to the tables of their common prayer.
Come prepared to be surprised by God’s word and presence
in the assembly of your neighbours.
Come as you are!
Come as sinners who need to find mercy,
as the redeemed who need to give thanks.
Come with all that needs to be healed,
to the Lord who comes to heal you.
Come with no expectations
but the sure hope of communion with the Holy One in the family of God’s people.*

If your community’s needs help — offer it!

*Model your community’s liturgy on Christ’s divine service not on the experience of neighbouring parishes.
The liturgy your parish offers
is a mirror of the life your parish lives:
Look into that mirror and see what you will see;
then do what must be done.
When visitors praise and thank you
For the worship you have offered,
Take delight in the blessing they have received,
And rejoice in the work
The Lord has accomplished through you.
Be faithful in the work you do,
For through it the Lord saves us.*
