

Mary Immaculate Church, Waverley

PARISH OF ST CHARLES BORROMEO - CHURCH OF MARY IMMACULATE BULLETIN

MISSION STATEMENT

Waverley Parish is a sign of God's love for all people. We welcome and care for all as a community which embraces the Gospel of Jesus in the spirit of St. Francis and St. Clare of Assisi.

We acknowledge the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We walk on a land once occupied by the Gadigal people of the Eora nation. May we continue to love and respect the land as they have.

MASS TIMES

Monday - Friday: 9:15am

Saturday: 9:15am followed by Reconciliation & 5:00pm Vigil.

Sunday: 9:15am & 5:00pm.

Baptism: Last two Sundays of each month at 10:45am. Bookings essential.

THE TABLE OF FELLOWSHIP

Sitting together for a meal can generate a special feeling of togetherness. Each of us will have our own memories of table companionship or fellowship. Many of these will be happy experiences of celebration and laughter, of love received and shared. Some memories of table fellowship may be sad, times when we were more aware of one who was absent than of those who were present. Jesus shared table many times with his disciples. It is likely that, when sharing food with his disciples, he also shared with them his vision of God's kingdom. At table, the disciples imbibed something of Jesus' mind and heart and spirit. Of all the meals he shared with them, the meal that stayed in their memory more than any other was their last meal together, what came to be known as the last supper. Today's gospel gives us Mark's account, his word-picture, of that last supper.

This last meal Jesus shared with his disciples stood out in their memory, capturing the imagination of generations of disciples right up to ourselves. He did more than share his vision with the disciples; he gave them himself in a way he had never done before, and in a way that anticipated the death he would die for them and for all, on the following day. In giving himself in the form of the bread and wine of the meal, he was declaring himself to be their food and drink. In calling on them to take and eat, to take and drink, he was asking them to take their stand with him, to give themselves to him as he was giving himself to them.

It was because of that supper and of what went on there that we are here in this church today. Jesus intended his last supper to be a beginning rather than an end. It was the first Eucharist. Ever since that meal, the church has gathered regularly in his name, to do and say what he did and said at that last supper — taking bread and wine, blessing both, breaking the bread and giving both for disciples to eat and drink.

Jesus continues to give himself as food and drink to his followers. He also continues to put it up to his followers to take their stand with him, to take in all he stands for, living by his values, walking in his way, even if that means the cross. Whenever we come to Mass and receive the Eucharist, we are making a number of important statements. We are acknowledging Jesus as our bread of life, as the one who alone can satisfy our deepest hungers. We are also declaring that we will throw in our lot with him, as it were, that we will follow in his way and be faithful to him all our lives, in response to his faithfulness to us. In that sense, celebrating the Eucharist is not something we do lightly. Our familiarity with the Mass and the frequency with which we celebrate it can dull our senses to the full significance of what we are doing. Every time we gather for the Eucharist, we find ourselves once more in that upper room with the first disciples, and the last supper with all it signified is present again to us.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

He fed them with the finest wheat
and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

FIRST READING: GENESIS 14:18-20

When Abram heard that his nephew, Lot, had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, and routed the abductors.

After Abram's return King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. He blessed Abram and said, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"

And Abram gave him one tenth of everything.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 109:1-4

The Lord's revelation to my Master:

'Sit on my right:

I will put your foes beneath your feet.'

The Lord will send from Zion
your sceptre of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes.

A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the daybreak
I begot you.

The Lord has sworn an oath
he will not change.
'You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old.'

FOR 9.15AM SUNDAY

*You are a priest for ever,
in the line of Melchizedek*

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 11:23-26

Beloved, I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: JOHN 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: LUKE 9:11-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured.

The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place."

But Jesus said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish - unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." For there were about five thousand men.

And Jesus said to his disciples, "Make the people sit down in groups of about fifty each." They did so and made them all sit down.

And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Presider: Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God. In a spirit of hospitality, let us pray for the needs of our world and our community.

We pray for Pope Francis and all our Church leaders; clergy, lay and religious. Like Melchizedek, may they continue to serve the people of God with faithful and joyful hearts.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

We pray for refugees and asylum seekers. May world communities, and their leaders, welcome persons seeking a safe place to call home and uphold their right to decent living conditions.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

We pray for the persons in our world who go hungry every day. May our sharing at the Lord's table change and inspire us, to share generously with persons who are poor and hungry.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

We pray for our parish community. May the love of God poured into our hearts move us to deeply respect and listen to each other and care for each other.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

We pray for the farmers and horticulturalists of our nation. May their care of the land and humane care of animals be priorities in the way land is worked and food produced.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

We pray for persons in the world enduring untold suffering due to fighting, war and the pandemic. May they receive the healing care and comfort they need.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord hear our prayer

You desire, O God, to feed your people. We are your people who have come to your table today. Hear the prayers we bring you so that all may come to live in the fellowship of your love. Grant these prayers in the name of Christ our Lord, Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people
of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated
at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ,
His only Son, our Lord:
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary;
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell;
on the third day
He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

NEWS & NOTICES

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES
22 - 26 JUNE 2022

Every three years since 1994, the Church has celebrated the World Meeting of Families in a different city of the world. In 2022 the event will be hosted by the Diocese of Rome with Pope Francis leading special celebrations. However, the Holy Father has also asked that the World Meeting of Families be celebrated concurrently in every diocese of the world in 2022. The idea is for families to gather locally around their bishop to explore and celebrate the theme of "Family love: A vocation and a path to holiness." Visit: www.family.catholic.org.au for info.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

The current series of planned giving envelopes finishes on Sunday, 26 June. The next series will be available next weekend. We thank you for your support!

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Please pray for all students preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. Please also note the Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated during the Vigil Mass this Saturday at 5pm. This mass will be a slightly longer and larger mass due to students receiving this Sacrament.
